Eco Spark: A Motivation Programme for First-Year Students

The Department of Economics organized “Eco Spark: A Motivation Programme for First-Year Students” on 30 October 2025 at the Geology Library Hall. The session was inaugurated by Prof. Mohamed Koya M. N., Principal, and the keynote address was delivered by Afeefa M.K. of Unarvu Counselling. The programme focused on managing examination anxiety, effective exam preparation, and stress-relief techniques such as breathing exercises.

An interactive discussion enabled students to share their examination-related experiences and concerns, helping them build confidence and develop a positive attitude towards academics. A total of 58 first-year students participated in the programme. The event successfully motivated students, reduced exam-related stress, and encouraged them to set clear academic goals and strengthen their self-confidence.
